Internship Description: Start here, go anywhere

Each year, Arup seeks out students from around the world for our acclaimed summer internship program. We are interested in students from rigorous academic programs who are ready to jump into the professional world and directly impact Arup's work.

We look for diverse students with inquisitive minds and the desire to challenge themselves and the status quo. Our interns learn quickly, are natural problem solvers and thrive on innovation. Program details: Arup offers paid summer internships across our 16 offices in the Americas. You will work alongside talented professionals and contribute to the success of real projects. In addition to on-the-job experience, we offer learning sessions with top leadership, site visits to local projects and social events.
